

DARA

(Dayton Area Recruiting Alliance)

Presents

A HUMAN RESOURCES LEGAL UPDATE

Change was the theme of the Presidential Election Campaigns last fall, and "change" as well as the general business climate have certainly impacted Human Resources, making it more important than ever to keep up with current HR legal issues.

Don't miss the opportunity to join us for a timely update and Q & A session with one of the Dayton Area's most knowledgeable employment law experts. Included, will be information about the Americans with Disabilities Act, FMLA and the Employee Free Choice Act.

Please join us on January 21.

Our Presenter:

JEFFREY A. MULLINS
Partner-in-Charge
Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP/Dayton

Mr. Mullins practices in the areas of labor and employment law and health care. He serves as president of the Miami Valley Human Resource Association, is a board member of the Catholic Social Services of Miami Valley and the Better Business Bureau serving the Miami Valley. He is a member of the University of Dayton's School of Law Advisory Council, serves as treasurer for the Voluntary Protection Program Association for Construction and as trustee for the Ohio Valley Construction Education Foundation.
