DEVELOPING A SUCCESSION PLANNING PROCESS FOR YOUR CAREER

Following a decade of downsizing and mergers that eliminated many organizational layers, companies are realizing that they don't have bench strength for future leadership positions. Will this lack of bench strength affect your ability to grow and advance your career?

Learn the right steps for creating your own personal succession plan, based upon your values, drivers and strengths. Gain practical tips in developing your self-marketing materials to support your succession plan. Access to self-assessments will be provided.

Our Presenter:

Robin Brun, Vice President Consulting Services Right Management

Robin has more than 12 years of Human Resources experience primarily in the areas of training and development, recruitment and transition. She has spent the majority of her career coaching and counseling people on taking control of their career development.
