CAN YOU RECRUIT USING SOCIAL NETWORKING (PART 1 OF 2)

Remember when social networking meant attending a meeting or inviting someone to lunch? Of course Social Networking has an entirely different meaning now; recruiter's are able to participate in social networking with a few clicks of the mouse and keyboard.

Join us and gain a better understanding of Social Networking, some of the most popular Social Networking sites and ways to use Social Networking to communicate recruitment activities and openings.

Part II (DARA's October session) will focus on whether Social Networking should be a part of your talent acquisition strategy.

Our Presenter:

Shelley Franz, Director, Talent Acquisition Premier Health Partners

Shelley has more than 15 years of Human Resources experience primarily in the areas of recruiting, training, recruiting operations and management. She has experience in passive recruitment techniques as well incorporating these techniques into corporate environments.
